

Remember

Verse 1:

Take my hand
Speak the command
And this volatile heart will bleed again
As Your memory wakens me within
I will wait
Please don't delay
By the light of the moon you sang to me
Now Your beautiful voice still haunts my dreams

Chorus:

I remember You I remember You
The words we shared the love we had
Was always something new
I'll return to You I'll return to You
And I know Your heart will hear me
For You were always near me
I'll return to You

Verse 2:

There's Your voice
No other choice
Either harbor my pride and be accursed
Or delight in the love that loved me first
Through wounds and wars
My love is Yours
Should my breathing be sealed, my body killed
I will fasten my eyes upon You still
